opped to eighth place this last week, a non-print week for us. That should tell us something about our off-week pmances. We are ususally first for second except on weeks we don't have a print issue. But if you look at the semes ll you see that we are essentially 100 stories ahead our nearest competitor.

cing TalonNet

ite has adopted a new standard for a course management system. We use our own version of an open-source syst akai and call it TalonNet. The new standard is from Canvas and schools across the state, including Cerritos, are sta about whether to switch to it or not. How is it similar? How is it different?

Academic Senate endorses state's switch to Canvas – Contra Costa - <http://bit.ly/1iiSOfi>

Desire to switch – Contra Costa - <http://bit.ly/1PUQf0J>

Opinion: Every class needs to use D2L (course management system – American River - <http://bit.ly/1P5lowl> nology

; like a number of schools are starting to do stories on new apps or gaming. We might consider features on phone n be of interest to students, especially as it helps them be better students.
