

A close-up photograph of a man with dark hair and glasses, looking directly at the camera with wide, expressive eyes. His hands are positioned near his face, with fingers slightly spread. The background is a plain, light gray. The word "com" is visible on the left side of the image, partially cut off.

Each section can have its own content and design. We will be building them in coming weeks.

More pages will be added as we grow. High on our list: A campus clubs page.

Tabs will rotate automatically to feature more lead stories.

Videos, photo slide shows, podcasts and other interactive media will be featured on the front page.

Readers will be able to add to stories with their comments and additions.

Register your vote with story-by-story polls. Stories can also include links to additional sources, such as YouTube videos and movie trailers.

Track the most popular stories on the site.

Coming soon: Map of construction projects on campus. Find out why they've got that area blocked off.

Cartoons, puzzles and more for your diversion. Campus cartoonists sought.

The latest stories will be updated throughout the week as they become available.

Blogs by Talon Marks staff will give a new look at campus news.

Campus clubs and programs can start their own blogs and have them featured on the TM web site.

The best blogs will be featured online
and in print.

See what editors
at other community
colleges are writing about.

Download the latest or past editions of print Talon Marks.

Read the Talon Marks from your cell phone or iPod
or subscribe to an RSS feed for your computer or PDA.

Sports schedules and results available on the front page.

Advertise your program or activity. Place classified ads online or in print from the web site and pay with credit card.

www.talonmarks.com