PAT CRIGLER

Model or Secretary?

Pat Crigler, of 15712 El Tiro Dr., La Mirada, faces a dilemma. She likes the idea of becoming a secretary, but is considering equally her prospects for becoming a model. Maybe the solution lies in her becoming a model secretary.

In the meantime, Pat is taking shorthand at CJC to help her along in her job at the City National Bank in La Mirada, where she works as bookkeeper. The people in the bank, she avers, are so-o friendly, but then, so is everybody in La Mirada.

Pat is a '56 graduate of Washington High in L.A. "I've always wanted to go to junior college," Pat sighed. "And here I am."

LIBRARY - Remember, the CJC library at 11234 E. Alondra Blvd., is now open every Tuesday and Wednesday evening. Come in and get acquainted with your library.

BULLETIN BOARD - You'll notice a new portable bulletin board in the hall, just outside the office. We hope the students will take advantage of it for any communications, notices, or just plain want ads. It's yours to use. If in doubt about your copy see Madge in the office.

CERRITOS NEWS - We'd like very much to make our weekly newsheet a student bulletin. Won't you turn in any bits of news or information that might be of general interest? Give it to our little Madge, or mail it to us, Box 67, Artesia.

SUGGESTIONS - If you have any suggestions, gripes, or advice to make CJC a better school to live in, won't you let us know? Same address as above. We'll see that it reaches the appropriate ears. Honest!

INFORMATION - CJC administration office DAYS 11442 E. Alondra Blvd., Tel. UN 51721; EVENINGS 15711 So. Pioneer Blvd., Tel. UN 42721.

Sharpshooting GI's ⊕

Two ex GI's with blood in their eyes and real determination to go places are Donald Campagna (left), and Tom Tucker.

Don, 237 So. Coral St., Compton, is a crane rigger at North American in El Segundo, had four years with the Marines, played football in the service and hopes to play for Cerritos.

Tom lives at 10446 Barnwall, Bellflower. He drives a truck, spent four years in the Navy, and is aiming at an A.A. degree. Both are taking English, history, and Personal Finance.
