CERRITOS COLLEGE

FACULTY FROLICS

At a faculty meeting held Monday, the teachers had many interesting tales to relate about their vacations and other activities. Miss Dozier had quite an embarrassing moment when she was admitted to a local theater for a junior admission ticket. Mr. Kleinerman suggested a plan to make students study harder; he promises a pink Thunderbird to each student with a 4.5 average at the end of the semester.

Heads turned as Mr. Grafton came in on crutches; this wasn't the result of his ski trip, but the accident came when he tripped and fell getting out of the car in front of his home. Miss Schutz also had a problem; she stubbed her toe on the ceiling demonstrating a new kick in the cha cha cha for the social dance classes.

The Cerritos coaches had quite a vacation too. Mr. Klapstein admitted getting caught red-handed mailing a letter to Riverside pleading for a re-match in football. Someone said Mr. Caine had sent Easter cards in Braille to many of the referees from this season's basketball games. The L.A. Dodgers have contacted Mr. Wally Kincaid to pass out their awards at the end of the season. This came after a scout viewed his sterling performance at the Cerritos awards assembly.

Word has it that Dr. Hengsteler has resigned in order to assist at the snack truck. All students should heed these words from Mr. Blakemore, "Things have worked out so well at Artesia we've decided not to move after all."

Mr. Childs reported the reason for the flag flying at half mast this week was due to the fact the lemming family had a loss over the weekend. Mr. Scott sat back and listened. As the meeting was adjourned he made this comment, "At this stage of the game, I take a dim view . . . .!"

"REVIEW OF WINTER" . . . . .

FASHION SHOW SCHEDULED

The sixth annual Cerritos fashion show will be held a week from day-after-tomorrow. It promises to be even more successful than the one held last summer in the student union.

Ty Ty Lavery, former tennis star, model and ballerina, was selected as commentator for the show. She is known all over the world as the best in her field.

Top fashion models who will show-off the new fashions are Roberta Bietz, Daisy Lou Worsham, Sandra Kerr, Robin Robbins, Renee Bishop, Katy Roberts, and the sophisticated Woodroof twins, Audrey and Wilma.

Most of the girls modeling average 6'2" in height. Their weight varies from a slim 94 pounds to a plump 98 pounds. All of the fashion models have had years of experience.

One of the girls' fondest memories includes modeling Martha Washinton's wedding gown. Others have been seen in such exclusive places as Bug-Tussle, Texas; Tin-Can Beach, California; and Frozen Toes, Alaska.

So, fans, this promises to be one of the most interesting spring fashion shows in our area. By the way, all the girls will be modeling winter clothes. Anyone wishing to buy tickets may do so from student salesgirls, Suzi Iverson and Myrtle Kettle.

The United States Air Force announced that it will build a new rocket launching station at the new Cerritos campus. Construction of the blast-off area is shown above. To avoid possible enemy attack, the missile thrower will be disguised as a lecture hall with Falcon students assisting in countdowns. Math majors will be used exclusively for this duty.

FALCONETTES' SECRET REVEALED BY ADVISOR

Who are the girls with the slinky legs who carry two flags with them at athletic games this year?

THE SECRET'S OUT.

When questioned, advisor Joan Schutz replied, "Due to the great majority of male population at Cerritos, the 58-59 Falconette team was comprised of disguised men students."

The names revealed by Miss Schutz were Harold Gray, Denny Williams, Bill Bogdanoff, Frank Farrar, George Edgerton, Boyd Trimble, Jim Wolfsberger, Louie Sanchez, Bill Spawr, Jim Corbett, Al Cool, and Bill Pope.

Everyone will agree that they did a terrific job with their precision routines. Good luck next year, men!

WOMEN'S BASEBALL TEAM BRINGS HOME CUP; BEATS USC IN PIERCE TOURNEY FINALS

Cerritos College's coed baseball team won their first trophy in the Pierce Invitational Tournament by swooping USC (University of Square Chicks) 14-4 in the championship game.

In beating USC decisively, the women unleashed a 16 hit attack, highlighted by three homers. Outfielder Tex Nunley, second basewoman Carol Streets and first basewoman Helen Larrabee belted the balls into Pierce's pasture for the runs. Freshman Kathie Lewis, former Whittier whiz kid, went the nine innings to gain the win.

In gaining the championship round, the Falcons slaughtered Saltdine College's yearlings 9-0 in an abbreviated seven inning game. Southpaw Elizabeth Hill received credit for the win, but combined efforts with freshman Priscilla Reina for the one-hit shutout. Falcon shortstop Donna Clark belted the season's first home run in the first inning of play.

Lefthander Mary Crump started the women off in the tournament by throwing a two-hitter at Pasadena's Little Old Ladies Club in Friday's game. The final score was 10-1.

The coeds impressed a large audience of coaches, professional scouts, and opposing players with their display of offensive power and pin-point pitching.

When Coach Farrie Jo Pirtle was questioned about the girls' chance of winning the Azusa Tournament, she replied, "It is difficult, but we are not afraid."

SPECIAL BOXING MATCH SCHEDULED

One of the biggest boxing events of the season will take place on Saturday, April 4, at Olympic Auditorium at 8 p.m.

The main round will feature Bud "Slugger" Fletcher from Cerritos College versus Ed "The Nose" Rowe of Ventura College.

Preliminary match is between John "Whitey" Martin and "Dangerous" Dan Bryant, both from Cerritos. Proceeds from both contests will go to Ventura Memorial Hospital.

CERRITOS STUDENT WOUNDED IN BLOODY FIGHT

One of the most blood-thirsty fights in the history of Cerritos took place last Monday night in the cafeteria. Bill "Baby-Face" Nelsen seriously slashed Bob "Beat 'em up" Bagwell with a bobby-pin.

"Beat 'em up" received his wounds after refusing to let "Baby-Face" copy his mid-term exam. Considering this a personal insult, Nelsen whipped out a bobby-pin and started after Bagwell.

Miss Amy Dozier, risking life and limb, finally stopped the fight.

"Didn't beat 'em up" Bagwell and Miss Dozier were both taken to the hospital for treatment. The doctors estimated that Bagwell lost at least one drop of blood. He will have to remain in bed for six weeks.

"Baby-Face" Nelsen has temporarily been sent to the "Tijuana Jail" where the Kingston Trio is keeping close watch over him.

SPRING FORMAL ANNOUNCED

Tarvin Clark, ASB President, announced today that the spring formal will be held at the Mocambo on Sunset Strip on Saturday, May 16.

The orchestra will feature combined talents of Ray Anthony and Harry James. Vocalists for the evening will be Doris Day, Johnny Mathis, and the Platters.
