Students Killed In Holiday Traffic

By Dean Grose

The holiday vacation turned into tragedy for three Cerritos freshmen in separate traffic accidents which claimed a total of seven lives.

The dead students are William Ronald Martin, 19, of 14115 Arlee St. in Norwalk; Roy Arthur Hamilton, Jr., 19, of 15152 Bellflower Blvd. in Bellflower; and Jon Leo Lutker, 18, of 13848 Cowley Ave. in Bellflower.

Martin was killed instantly when his auto went out of control around a curve and plunged down a 70-foot cliff in Mexico. Three passengers in his car were also killed in the Dec. 20 accident about 18 miles south of Tijuana. The passengers were from the San Diego area.

The wreckage of the auto was not discovered for nearly six hours.

Martin was a part-time student enrolled in the Police Science program.

Head-on Collision

Hamilton is a full time history major at Cerritos and died in a New Year's eve collision near Blythe, California.

He had gone home during the holiday to visit his parents in Eagle Mountain. On the night of the accident, he and a friend had gone to a nearby town to play a few games of pool.

Returning to the Eagle Mountain mining village, a car veered across the two-lane roadway and struck Hamilton's vehicle head-on.

Hamilton was dead on arrival at the hospital. His friend suffered only minor injuries. The two men in the other auto were reported hospitalized and under arrest by the sheriff on manslaughter and suspicion of felony drunk driving charges.

The boys were returning to Hamilton's house to watch color television. He lived with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Futch, at the Bellflower address.

Car Date Tragedy

Mrs. Evelyn Lutker gave her son an early Christmas present on Dec. 22. Several hours later it was involved in a grinding accident with two dead.

Lutker had taken his baby blue Corvette Christmas gift and gone to his girl friend's house. "It was a special occasion, so we let our daughter go with the young man," Kenneth Yost told investigating deputies.

His daughter, 16-year-old Lori Mae, was crushed in the accident which occurred at Bellflower boulevard and Ashworth St. in Lakewood.

According to police reports, Lutker was waiting at a traffic signal behind another auto when a truck raced toward the intersection falling to stop.

The 25 ton semitruck-trailer climbed the rear of the small sports car, crushing it beneath its wheels. Firemen were called to extract both victims.

Miss Yost was pronounced dead at the scene and Lutker was taken to a nearby hospital where he died eight hours later from internal and severe brain injuries.

Lutker, an only child, was active for many years in the De-Molay's and had just recently joined the Gamma Delta Phi fraternity at Cerritos.

He was a metallurgy major and carrying a full course. He was graduated in 1964 from Downey High School. Miss Yost was a junior at Downey.

VACATION TURNED TO TRAGEDY for three Cerritos freshmen in separate traffic accidents over the holidays. In one, a 25 ton semi truck-trailer crushed the Christmas gift sports car of Jon Leo Lutker. The Lakewood accident occurred when the truck failed to stop for a traffic signal at Bellflower Blvd. and Ashworth St., and crushed the two passengers. Driver Lutker, 18, died several hours later in the hospital. His female passenger, Lori Mae Yost, 16, was dead at the scene. The truck driver has been arrested for felony manslaughter.

Blakemore's Replacement

Business Manager Henry Korsemeier and Administrative Dean of Academic Affairs Bruce Browning have assumed the responsibilities of Dean of Student Personnel John Blakemore.

It was announced that this situation will exist until the end of the semester or until a replacement can be found.

Blakemore recently received a sabbatical leave for the spring semester.

According to Korsemeier, Dean of Men Clive Grafton, Dean of Women Amy Dozier and Dean of Athletics Don Hall will now report to him.

"Dean Browning," added Korsemeier, "will be responsible for admissions and counseling which were also formerly under Blakemore."

Max Rafferty Invites PBL To LA Parley

At the invitation of Supt. of Public Instruction Dr. Max Rafferty, members of Phi Beta Lambda will attend the California State Conference on vocational education next Monday and Tuesday at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles.

Former Cerritos student Fan Wheeler, who was Miss Executive of Calif. last year, will speak to the general assembly on Tuesday.

Among the keynote speakers at the conference will be Governor Brown, Congressman Carl Perkins, Dr. Seymour Wolfbein and Dr. Paul Sheats.

Attendance is by invitation only and the event is expected to draw about 1,000 participants. This is the first time that such statewide attention has been given to vocational education.

Campus delegates will be Lynn Mendenhall, corresponding secretary of the Calif. chapter, who will be taking Calif. PBL President Lorraine Beckley's place; Bonnie Mulder, Calif. state vice president; and Nello Di Corpo, Calif. state adviser.

play tonight, Saturday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, and Tuesday and Thursday of the week after.

The play begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Transistor Theatre, located in the Electronics Building. Free reserved seats may now be picked up in the Book Store in exchange for Student body booklet coupon 29.

Regular reserved seats for the public are $1 each; school employees and their families are admitted for 25 cents each. "Dinny and the Witches" is a story about a young trumpet player beset by the plots of three ruling witches of the world from the three hags, and they then conspire to get it back. As a rule, Dinny is a failure; everything goes wrong. He who had the world by the tail ends up with nothing until he agrees to wed the world and all its imperfections.

However, the plot is not simply to amuse; it was written to show that a man is not an island, and that he must take part and, in fact, marry the world for better or worse. It points out that nothing in the world is perfect, and that man's duty is to rise to the degree of perfection possible before the bomb blows him up.

News Briefs

TODAY'S TWO-PAGER was published through the special efforts of the "Talon Marks" staff. The regular four-page edition will be in the racks next Friday, according to advisor John Dowden.

AN HONORS BANQUET to recognize outstanding student achievement during the first semester will be held Jan. 20 at the Golden West Restaurant. Reservations may be made through the Student Affairs Office.

SCHOLARSHIP PRIZES worth $800 will be given to high school students in the Cerritos College District who exhibit projects at the annual Space, Science and Technology Show.

MRS. SELMA HAYTEMA passed away Dec. 27. Mrs. Haytema had been a librarian in the reference section since 1962.

30 SEATS UP FOR GRABS

Petitions Handy For Senate Race

All 30 seats of the Cerritos student senate are up for grabs in next Friday's election, giving the freshman class a chance to take the majority of seats in that legislative body.

Sign-ups for petitions are now being taken in the Student Affairs office. Full-time students, presently earning a 2.0 scholastic average, are eligible. The deadline for petitions will be Monday.

Up to press day, 12 senators are seeking reelection. They are Linda DuLac, Jerry Young, Brian Iles, Jo Ann Carroll, Richard Price, Mark Benton, Kathy Ulrich, John Silvius, Les Woodson and Bob Hobly.

Judy Campbell, Bob McHolland, Frank Jacobson and John Lomplins will also venture into the world of politics in next Friday's election.

There are 18 senators who have not yet petitioned for reelection. They are Dennis Snell, Jim Lytell, Gordon Nelson Terry Jackson, Rose Marie Mellano and Anne Kyllingstad.

Others senators who have not yet signed for re-election are David Raphael, Marna Caruthers, Shari Consalves, Diane Rosenblum, Bonnie Schlocker, Loretta Rubeshaw, Sharon Subbe, Nancy Weisenberg, and Bill Anita Wehrle, Linda Carroll, Burgess.

Voting booths will be in the Quad and Lecture Hall areas. Students must present Coupon B before they will be given a ballot. Booths will be open from 8:30 a.m. and will close at 2:30 p.m.

All students are encouraged by Dean of Student Affairs Clive Grafton, also the adviser of the senate, to participate in the election by either running for one of the 30 posts available or by voting next Friday. Senate meetings are held each Wednesday afternoon at 2 and end around 4 p.m.

Cabinet Says 'Bye Me' On Card Playing

Renada Cirri, AWS commissioner, reopened the card playing controversy on Monday when she moved to allow card playing in the Student Center.

Before the motion was tabled by AS Vice President Lynn Sedej many pro and con speeches were given.

Looked Bad

Miss Sedej pointed out that one of the reasons card playing was banned in the first place was because the administration felt that it "looked bad" to civic groups who visit our school.

Gerald Young, senate party whip, announced that legislation was pending before the senate that would put the card playing question to a vote of the Associated Students on Jan. 15.

He suggested that the cabinet wait on any action until they could find out student opinion on the matter.

No Vote?

"If we put this question to the students," said Richard Frazier, AMS commissioner, "everyone who wants to play cards will vote for it." He explained that "No one will vote against it" because those who do not want to play cards will not care one way or the other.

The cabinet accepted with regrets the resignation of Wilma Maughan from her position as senior clerk of the Student Book Store. Grafton pointed out that Mrs. Maughan has given the book store many years of faithful service.

Strock Resigns

AS Secretary Toni Strock also announced that she would be resigning at the end of the current semester. Miss Strock said that since she was graduating, she would no longer be able to continue in her duties.

This now leaves student government with the problem of finding a new secretary and a new senate clerk. Dee Phares announced last month that she planned to step down from her senate clerk position.

Concert, Jan. 21

A change was announced in the coming Brothers Four concert. Instead of Saturday, Jan. 23, the program will be presented on Thursday, Jan. 21.

Registrants Sign Now Or Wait in Long Lines

"Register now and don't wait for the three-hour lines in February," says M. Edward Wagner, dean of admission. "There are still three more days of continuing students' priority registration," Wagner continued.

No appointment is necessary to register either today from 10 to 4, and Monday and Tuesday nights from 6 to 9. Counseling, if the student does not already have a pre-plan, will be available on these days.

"The next chance to register will be Feb. 1, 2 and 3, and it will be extremely crowded and many classes will be closed," stated Martha Wolfsberger, admissions secretary. The hours on these days are 9 in the morning to 4, and 6 to 9 at night.

"Already we have 3,000 students registered and we hope the rest of the continuing students will take advantage of priority registration," concluded Wagner.

In his official estimate of enrollment, Wagner stated that due to the marked increase in enrollment this past semester, he expects 8,700 students to register for the spring semester.

New students must first take the placement test before registering. The days for the tests are all on Saturdays, starting tomorrow and every Saturday following until Feb. 4.

The English and "Seat" test, which everyone must take, begins at 9 and ends at noon.

Registration dates for new students are Feb. 8 and 9.

CLUB NOTES

Vigorous Start For '65

By PAT BYRD

New Year on campus has started out with a Bang! It seems that the college's clubs have made the same resolution—activities, activities and more activities.

Phi Beta Lambda

Tickets for the surfing film, "The Angry Sea," will be on sale through Jan. 15 in the Student Center according to Mike Payne, film committee chairman. Admission price is $1.50.

Tickets may also be purchased from Phi Beta Lambda (business club) members or at the door prior to show-time.

Edelweiss

The color film, "Inge Entdeckt Eine Stadt," or, in English, "Inge Discovers A City," will be presented by the German Club next Tuesday in LA 4.

According to Club Adviser Margaret Bluske, the film's dialogue is in German, "Even though the film is not in English, the photography is excellent and the scenery is beautiful," said Miss Bluske.

All students and faculty members are invited to attend the 11 a.m. showing.

Lit Club

The Literary Discussion Group will meet at the home of Adviser James Dighera on Wednesday to discuss two prominent names in the world of literature, Dr. Zhivago and Boris Pasternak. The meeting is planned at 8 p.m.

Home Economics Club

An organizational meeting of the Home Ec Club will be held next Thursday in AC 53 at 11 a.m.

According to Adviser Ruth Laidlaw, students interested in joining the club are invited to attend the meeting.

Chess Club

Plans are underway for a mid-year chess tournament between members of the Cerritos club and Long Beach State College's club, either Jan. 30 or Feb. 6.

Meetings are scheduled for Tuesday and Thursdays in AC 50 until the tournament for the purpose of bettering the members game.

CRA Tennis Tournament Set Tuesday

Entries for the fourth annual Cerritos tennis tournament, to be held Jan. 12-21, are now being accepted by the College Recreation Association. Deadline for submitting entries is Monday noon according to Adviser Rhea Gram.

Eligible students may enter the divisions of men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. Any students enrolled in Cerritos and who has a student body card is eligible.

A fee of 50 cents per person must accompany entry blanks. No entries will be accepted without fee. No fees will be refunded.

Trophies will be awarded to all winners and runners-up if there are enough entries in the various categories, maintained Mrs. Gram.

Tennis matches are scheduled for 2, 3, and 4 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The day and time of succeeding matches will be posted on draw sheets in Mrs. Gram's office. (PE-N).

Mrs. Gram stressed the importance of checking dates and times of the matches carefully. "If you do not understand the time and date of your match or if classes interfere with the matches, please check with me," said Mrs. Gram.

Monarchs, Bucs Test Falcon Cagers

By PAT LEVENS
"TM" Sports Editor

Revenge will tinge tonight's Metropolitan Conference tussle between Cerritos and the high scoring Santa Monica Corsairs at the Corsair Gym. Game time will be at 8 and the contest will be aired by KCRW-FM, 89.9 megacycles.

Coach Tom McGarvin's Bucs have already met the Falcons once in the recent Sam Barry Tournament and were trounced 72-65. The Falcons jumped off to a quick lead and they never had to look back. But this time things might be different.

Forwards Back

For one thing forward Tony Pazaricky was hurting with a bad ankle during the Sam Barry Classic and was able to score only eight points against the Falcons. Before this Pazaricky was hitting 21.8 points a game and will again be a threat this evening.

Frank White, a returning letterman, has been out with a badly sprained wrist and ankle and should really be ready to go. White, though, did score 13 in the Sam Barry game in his second appearance since the injury.

The other three beach starters, Howard Hassen, Greg Horbachevsky and Jim Knybel will all bring impressive credentials into the second game of the league season. Hassen, one of the smallest centers in J.C. basketball orings a 17.6 average, while Horbachevsky hits 16.4 and Knybel 13.4. Thus, all five starters are hitting in double figures.

The Falcons, though, should take this one in a cake walk, but it's Tuesday night home game against L.A. Valley that has head man Jim Killingsworth shaking in his boots.

Impressive Record

The Monarchs bring the most impressive pre-season record in conference play (14-5) including the consolation championship of the Bakersfield Tourney and the Antelope Valley Tournament Championship.

Coach Ralph Caldwell also possess two returning All-Metro players in 6'4" center Willie Hearnton and the unbelievable Leonard McElhannon. McElhannon is perhaps the finest guard in California J.C. basketball this season. Standing at 5'11", 225 lbs, he turns the 100 yd. dash in 9.6 in the spring and is able to dunk the ball with ease. Last year McElhannon scored 24 points against the Falcons in Valley's upset, win 77-70, hitting on 11 out of 13 from the field.

Besides these stars Caldwell also has 6'5" Cary Smith who has been scoring a clip of better than 22 a game. Rounding out the starting line-up are 6'7" center John Hinderach who is a fine rebounder and defensive artist for the Monarchs and 6'2" Chuck Campione at guard. If the Falcons take this game then they should walk off with the Metro Championship. But they have to play their best game to date and hope that McElhannon and crew don't fast break on them alot.

Making a vain effort to stop the "Falcon Express" are Huskies Dan Solares (20), Dan Rodriguez (30), Doug Newby (33) and Bob Jarro (35). Boersma played his finest game to date and sparked the team all the way with his fine playmaking and he also managed to latch onto eight rebounds.

TODAY AT 3

Grapplers Entertain L.A. Valley

Coach Hal Simonek's wrestling brigade will resume Metropolitan action today against Los Angeles Valley College at 3 p.m. in the Falcon gym. Tomorrow Cerritos will enter the Junior AAU tournament at the Long Beach Naval Training Center. Action will begin at 10 a.m.

The Monarchs finished in the collar position last season with a 0-4 record. So far this season, Valley has been impressive in all of their outings.

Same Team

Valley's success has come from one advantage. The Monarchs have the same team back as last year, which this year works as a tough machine.

Coach Simonek didn't let up during the holiday period as practice was scheduled daily. "The team worked real hard and now are looking forward in tackling their second Metro opponent," he added.

"Los Angeles is as good or better than Bakersfield which should show how they have improved over last year," stated Simonek.

The Junior AAU meet will be an open meet. Any team can enter.

Many of the outstanding four year schools, top junior colleges, AAU teams and high school squads will be participating for top honors.

Cerritos will enter two squads in the meet. "I think we can take the meet. El Camino is entered but two of their top men will be ineligible as they took part in the AAU Seniors division meet. This will leave two good spots for us to win," remarked Simonek.

Metro Win

Just before the holiday break, the Falcons finished the year with two impressive victories. On Dec. 10 Cerritos dumped top rated San Bernardino, 29-11, and outpointed Bakersfield Dec. 17, 28-14.

San Bernardino, rated high in the J.C. circuit, hadn't lost a dual meet in 98 attempts until they met the Falcons. "We probably worked harder than any other time this season to get that match. We pointed to that meet and got it," added Simonek.

Against the Renegades the Falcons trailed half way through the match but rallied by two pins by Dennis Downing (147 lbs.) and John Bean (157 lbs.) to give Cerritos a 13-11 lead.

Dennis Shell (167 lbs.) was upended 4-0 by Renegade Jim Moshier to gain back the lead, 14-13. But with two successive pins by Wayne Partee (177 lbs.) and Barry Schneider (191 lbs.) and a decision by Gary Denham (Hwt.) the Falcons obtained 13 points and the win.

'Murals Start Mat Program

The first annual intramural wrestling tournament will begin Monday. The tournament is scheduled to begin at noon and go to 12:45 every day next week. All matches will be held in the gym.

"I would like to have this wrestling tournament to be a regular part of the intramural program in the coming years. But, to date there have only been a few people to even show any interest in the tourney at all," stated Dutch Triebwasser, coordinator of the program.

All interested wrestling enthusiasts may register for competition with either Triebwasser or wrestling coach Hal Simonek in the PE Building.

Hoopsters Bomb ELAC 97-65 in Debut

Coach Jim Killingsworth's Falcons cagers made it three in-a-row over Metropolitan Conference foes as they "officially" whipped East L.A. 97-65 for their initial conference victory of the season.

A week earlier in the Sam Barry Tourney, Cerritos met two conference foes in the consolation rounds and handily defeated them both. Long Beach City fell 74-69 in the consolation championships, while Santa Monica was drubbed 72-65 in the semi-finals. The Sam Barry title marked the second championship the Falcons annexed, out of the four tourneys that they played in. The other championship was their own tourney in a 73-61 victory over Pierce.

Hold Rodriguez

Holding Metro superstar Danny Rodriguez to only three first half points, the Falcons left little doubt in the minds of 1200 spectators that they will be a strong contender for the conference title as they jumped out to 18-2 lead in the opening minutes of the contest. From then on it was just a matter of how high Killingsworth wanted to see the score go.

Individually, guard Phil Boersma played his finest game of the season scoring 14 points. Boersma had to be consistently good because big Les Powell got into foul trouble early in the game and left in the first half with 12:34 left to go. Also outstanding was 6'7" Bob Rader, who showed a great improvement over his last home appearance in completely dominating both the offensive and defensive boards.

In tournament play over the holidays the Falcons ended up with a 5-4 record, giving them an overall 9-5 slate going to league play.

At the Chaffey Tournament Cerritos swept over powerful San Bernardino Valley in the first round 75-52 with Powell hitting for 22 points. In the second round, though, Mt. SAC knocked Powell & Co. out of the tourney 69-61. Powell again led all scorers with 16 points.

Modesto Tourney

Moving north to the Modesto clambake first round action saw the Falcons drop to No. 1

rated Hancock 91-82 with Powell peppering the nets for 28 tallies. In the first consolation game it was a 79-69 victory over Chaffey with Rich Brown getting 21 and Powell 16. But in the semi-finals San Francisco City caught Cerritos in a cold spell and downed them 74-57. Powell was again high man with 15.

After Christmas the cagers moved their trail to Glendale and the Sam Barry Tournament where they snagged the consolation championship and had Powell named to the All-Tournament team. The first round loss was to Riverside 70-60, who eventually won the upper bracket championship. Consolation wins were 78-65 (Trade Tech), 72-65 (Santa Monica) and 74-69 (Long Beach).

TOP SCORER FOR THE HUSKIE-FALCON BATTLE WAS FORWARD Rich Brown. This time though Brown saw his try for a basket foiled by All-Metro star Dan Rodriguez (standing behind Brown). Waiting for a possible rebound are Falcons Bill Plank (50) and Bob Johnson (44) while Huskies Gary Wiskus (15) and Doug Newby (33) maneuver for elbow room. Brown scored 18 points and showed the best shooting form he has yet displayed.

ON THE LEVEL

Grid Sport Needs a Bromo

By PAT LEVENS

In a post mortem discussion on the recent bowl games with Athletic Director Don Hall, "On The Level" raised the question of the kick-off after touchdown rule in effect at the North-South All-Star Shrine Game played Christmas Day at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

The rule requires that if a team is behind and scores a touchdown, field goal or a safety and is still behind, it has the choice of receiving or kicking the ball. The regular rule of course states that the team that has scored must automatically kick-off.

Hall, who is chairman of the Junior College Advisory Board to the NCAA Rules Committee, said the rule has been discussed at some of the Rules Committee meetings. "But this rule would be like giving a fighter who is losing in points a chance to hit his opponent for three rounds while the opponent has his hand tied," said Hall of the rule. "Sure it would help in games like the East L.A.-Long Beach game (55-0, Long Beach), but I think it's strictly for these all-star games. I will admit though that it benefits the spectator," Hall added.

"On The Level" feels the NCAA should adopt this rule for regular season college play. Let's face it, without fans a sport can't expect to make it. Here at Cerritos, and at most other colleges, football supports the entire athletic program. What fan wants to see a 55-0 donnybrook when he can view a close game that goes into the final seconds before being decided?

With each year, college football feels more competition for its dollar and yet stays stagnant with goal posts behind the end zone, no free substitution or any recent modification that would make an already exciting sport more pleasing to the spectators eye. After all, the fans support this college's athletic program—so let's make the product more enticing to the consumer.
