NORWALK, CALIFORNIA

MARCH 11, 1966

TERI DAUGHENBAUGH

Soph Chosen Space Queen

Teri Daughenbaugh, sophomore administrative secretarial major, has been selected as Queen of the Third Annual Space Science and Technology Show.

More than 300 persons attended the contest Monday night in the Student Center when Vice President for Academic Affairs Bruce Browning crowned Miss Daughenbaugh.

Pamela Pail, the current Miss Norwalk, and Mary Lee Ashens, history major, were selected as princesses for the 1966 show.

Miss Daughenbaugh has light brown hair and blue eyes. She is vice-president of her sorority, and wants to become a "good wife."

Miss Pail is a freshman legal secretary major who would like to work for a congressman. She has dark brown hair and hazel eyes.

A freshman, Miss Ashens has light brown hair and blue eyes and hopes to attend the University of California at Santa Barbara after leaving Cerritos.

The queen and her princesses will be making appearances on radio and television programs from now until the Space Show on April 22, 23 and 24.

All of the 24 contestants will receive prizes, including the Catalina swim suits which were worn during the competition.

The girls were judged in three different phases. They were first introduced to the audience in after-five dresses and then were asked to give a short speech on a subject of their choice.

The final segment of the contest was the swim suit competition.

Heading the list of judges was panel coordinator Skippy Blair. She is the owner of Skippy Blair Studios in Downey and is in charge of the choreography for the Miss California contest.

Other judges included Lyle Spillman, Richard Barton and Robert Sasine. Spillman is the co-producer of the Miss World

Jazz Band Plays Today

The second of a series of Jazz Concerts will be presented at noon today in the Student Center. The program, presented by the Cerritos Jazz Band, is open to all students.

Music Department Chairman Jack Wheaton announced that selections for today's performance include "Count Bounce" by Darnell Pershing, "Pink Panther Theme" by Henry Mancini and "How Insensitive" (Bossa Nova) by Carlos Jobim. Other numbers will include highlights from Mary Poppins, "Cute" by Neal Hefti, "Buck Rogers Won't You Please Come Home" by Dick Grove and "Esseabee" by John Le Porta.

Spring Concert Scheduled Tuesday in BC Theatre

Final rehearsals for Cerritos Spring Concert are being conducted by Music Department Chairman Jack Wheaton. Featuring the Cerritos Concert Band and the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the concert is scheduled to be held in Burnlight Center Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble is preparing such selections as Gustav Holst's composition "First Suite in E Flat and Beethoven's "Bear Dance." They will also present "His Honor," a traditional march by Henry Fillmore and "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" written by J. S. Bach and arranged by R. L. Mochlmann.

The Concert Band is preparing such numbers as the French composition "Monmartre March" from the Paris Suite, written by Haydn Wood, "Sara-bande from Porgy and Bess," written by Debussey and "Canzona," a modern composition of Peter Menin.

Another number presented by the Concert Band will be "Minuet and Dance of the Blessed Spirits" from the opera Orpheus. This selection, written by Christoph von Gluck, will feature the flute section.

Other numbers will be "Festival Overture," by the Russian contemporary artist Dmitri Shostakovich, George Gershwin's "American in Paris" and "Athletic Festival March," a contemporary new march by Sergei Prokofiev.

The concert is open to the public. Admission charge will be $1 general admission and 50 cents to AS card holders. Profits from the concert will support the band scholarship fund.

Smith Resigns Presidency; Brunette Already in Charge

By ROBERT UNDERWOOD

AS President Jerry Smith announced his resignation to the Senate Wednesday. He has enlisted in the Marine Corps Aviation Program and will be sent to Pensacola Naval Air Station in Florida shortly.

In a 10-minute speech, Smith reviewed what has happened in the past school year and urged the senators to consider the "major problem" which was the budget. "The biggest area of controversy this year was between the campus publications and the student government administration," said Smith. He felt that this controversy has been somewhat resolved and both sides learned certain things.

Smith said, "Both sides, if sides were drawn, have reached a better understanding as a result of this controversy."

In the speech, Smith revealed that Vice President Sandy Brunette has been acting as AS President officially since last week. In the Senate session, Senator Richard Price was elected as President Pro-Tempore and will act as president of the Senate for the remainder of the term.

Smith complimented Miss Brunette, saying, "I know of no one more capable on this campus to handle the job of president." He also commented on the Senate, saying that it was the most mature Senate that he has ever seen.

In closing, he urged student government officials "not to ever live on the small side of a problem. We must strive for complete and fair solutions," Smith said.

Smith dropped his classes officially last week. He was reclassified on Feb. 7 from a 2-S deferment to a 1-A classification. He said this was done because he carried only 11 units during one semester. At the time he was reclassified, he also got a notice for a physical. Smith elected to enlist in the Marine Corps.

He will receive 18 months of flight training in Pensacola and will receive a commission as a second lieutenant upon satisfactory completion of training. Three-and-a-half years of active duty follows.

During his five semesters at Cerritos, Smith was awarded two Gold Falcons and one Silver Falcon. He was a Senator before he was elected AS President last Spring. He has been a member of both the wrestling and football teams.

Supreme Court Rules Board OK Not Required

The Associated Student Supreme Court ruled last week that the AS Senate can enact legislation without the direct approval of the college Board of Trustees. This decision was handed down in a case testing the constitutionality of the bill which raised the price of AS membership cards to $10.

Writing for the majority opinion, Chief Justice Pro-Tempore Jerry Martin quoted Article IV, Section 10 of the AS Constitution which states: "All programs for raising revenue shall originate or be approved by the Senate."

Martin went on to interpret the above clause as implying that "the Senate does have the authority to regulate student body card fees until such time that the Board sees fit to intervene."

Justice Richard LoCicero also wrote a concurring decision. "The Board has given its implied consent to the student body senate being able to raise card fees," penned LoCicero.

"The authority of the Board in this area is cloudy and confused," he added.

Both Martin and LoCicero suggested that the Board issue a statement of policy which would clearly outline the degree of responsibility delegated to the Senate in approving such measures.

Speakers Fail To Place At SF Tournament

Cerritos debaters failed to place in the championship debate tournament held at San Fernando Valley State College last week.

Gloria Hartmann and Richard LoCicero won four and lost two preliminary debates and advanced to the quarter-finals. In the quarter-finals they lost to a team that went on to win the tournament. They were the only junior college team to succeed in entering the quarter-finals.

Bill Cassio and John Tagg won three and lost three in the preliminary rounds. The only other Cerritos team, Diana Roberts and Diane Riave, also won three and lost three.

This is the first of five championship lower division tournaments that a Cerritos debate team has failed to place this year, pointed out debate coach William Lewis.

Lewis said that he was satisfied with the squad's showing and felt that the tournament would prove of great value in preparing the debaters for the state finals coming up in April.

Trustees OK Faculty Senate

Official recognition was extended to the Cerritos College Faculty Senate at Tuesday's meeting of the Board of Trustees. The recognition came after the drafting of a new Faculty Senate constitution and a reconciliation from last year's faculty-administration dispute.

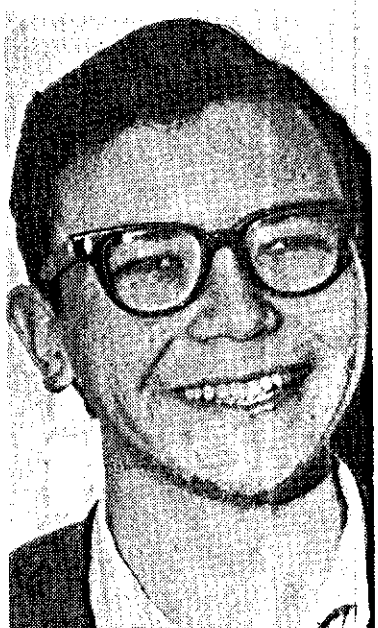

The Board went into a 70-minute executive session before approving the resignations of former Dean of Men Clive Grafton and English instructors Barry Sanders, Edward Moritz and Charles Lawson.

In other action, the Trustees approved sabbatical leaves for Extended Day Dean Harlan Stamm, Librarian Carl Johnson and instructors Rudolph Aguirre, Henry Childs, Juliette Venitsky, Helen Wegener and Jack Wheaton.

A $4,881 bid was accepted by the Trustees for a pit cover in the Burnlight Center Theatre. The orchestra pit was termed "a safety hazard" at previous board meetings.

Details of these stories will appear next week.

British Debate American Barbarism

By AMERICO AZEVEDO Sparks will fly as minds meet in combat in the Burnlight Center next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Two Cambridge debaters and two Cerritos debaters will team up to argue the opposing sides of the resolution: "That American society has gone from barbarism to decadence without going through civilization."

"Those of us who have heard British debaters in the past have always greatly enjoyed listening to their unique manner," commented speech chairman Juliette Venitsky. British debaters very often appeal to audiences by the use of humor and wit, she added.

The two visitors from Cambridge University are Ingo Geoffrey Bing and Robert Graham Marshall-Andrews. Their two American teammates will be John Tagg and Richard LoCicero.

Bing, 22, is the winner of the Law Faculty Debating Tournament and a finalist in the University Open Tournament. He has also been active in student journalism and politics.

MARSHALL-ANDREWS

Marshall-Andrews, 21, is winner of the "Observer Mace" Inter-University competition in England. He has made appearances in Revue and Cabaret at the University and is chairman of the School Debate Society.

Cerritos is the only junior college at which they will appear, according to Mrs. Venitsky. She considers Cerritos very fortunate in being able to present them.

The two visitors will tour the campus during the day. They will also receive a guided tour of Disneyland. There will be a dinner in their honor at the Tudor Inn in Norwalk. Members of the Speech Department, speech squad members and members of the Kiwanis Club will attend.

The presentation of the debate program in the Burnlight Center is made possible by the joint efforts of the Norwalk Kiwanis Club and the Speech Department.

Tickets will be 50 cents with AS card and $1 general admission. Tickets can be purchased at the office of Community Services in the Administration building.

Grow Up, Mr. Stenson

There is a tendency in man, upon gaining a position of importance, to throw his weight around and "feel his oats." This is true of nations, organizations and is most commonly seen in individuals. It is a childish attitude.

Last Thursday, Sen. Doug Stenson, the newly appointed party whip, approached and told this writer that the story on the AS Supreme Court meeting, which had just taken place, better be "written correctly," or else he would introduce legislation to the effect that the AS should cancel its "subscription" to "Talon Marks".

We'd like to wish the senator good luck in his new job and add a bit of advice. Grow up, Mr. Stenson. Grow up.

Court Merits Praise

The Associated Student Supreme Court justices merit praise for their recent decision.

The case involved the bill to raise the AS card to $10. Passed Nov. 24 by a 13-6 vote, opponents contended that this bill was unconstitutional because it was worded as a resolution rather than a recommendation. According to the opponents of the bill, the AS Senate only has the power to "recommend," and subsequent adoption of the new AS fee would have to be approved by the Board of Trustees.

The court ruled that the Senate does, in this instance, have the right to legislate, thus upholding the bill's constitutionality.

However, the court also made two important observations. The first was that the bill was unwise and not properly thought out. We concur with the court in this observation. We were glad to see the Senate rescind this bill last Wednesday.

The court's second observation was that the delineation between the areas in which the AS Senate can "legislate" and those where it can only "recommend" is hazy and in dire need of clarification.

Dean Don Siriani asserts that the AS Senate can only recommend, and that Board approval is needed for all legislation affecting the campus. Yet this has not been the case in the past, as witness the Publications Board bill and other resolutions passed by the Senate.

We support the court's recommendation that the Board of Trustees clearly outline and delineate the powers of student government. And we hope, if the trustees do undertake this task, that they recognize the right of the AS government to legislate in the areas that directly concern it.

Was Powers a Good Choice?

Dear Editor,

A commencement address is the last "message" a student receives from his college. To the students of Cerritos College, and especially to the male students, the forthcoming commencement will probably be the most crucial in their lives. For those students may be facing the very real possibility of spending the next two or three years of their lives in the military under war-time conditions. Talk of the Vietnam war is constant, dramatic, and for me, frightening; we live under the shadow cast by the mushroom cloud. Each of us must do his part in ridding our age of that shadow.

Should not this commencement have as one of its aims the de-emphasis of the military? Should it not be one in which the emphasis is turned toward peace? I am not opposed to professional soldiers speaking on a college campus, nor do I imply that our present choice for commencement speaker, "Shorty" Powers, is a war monger or a "hawk." I am suggesting that our selection for guest speaker should have been someone other than a person who captures newspaper lines that read, "graduated from Army flying school," "Flew 55 night bombing (sic) missions," "was awarded the bronze star, and was spot promoted (on the battlefield) to major."

Lt. Col. John "Shorty" Powers is brave, heroic, patriotic, but we need more this commencement; we need a speaker who is outspoken on the subject of peace. We need people like Linus Pauling or John McGovern. If there are students, or faculty, who feel this same way, I would appreciate their visiting my office.

That Time Again!

Dear Editor,

Psychology students, rejoice! Once again the time has come when you, and all the school, get to observe the semi-annual enactments of those chapters in your psychology text which deal with sadism and masochism.

You guessed it, suffering students, it's pledge time! Time for pledges and members to disprove that old adage that "Cerritos is a high school with ash trays." Rather during pledge weeks, Cerritos is a nursery school with ash trays.

Cast your eyes about, dear student. That weak, unassuming milk toast lab partner of yours who faints at the sight of a swimming goldfish in lab class, is perchance, a Napoleon, or the terror of the Spanish Main, casting his hapless captives into a shark infested South Sea lagoon, (the fountain by the coffee shop).

I ask, what does this debasement, this childish shouting, rhyme-chanting and other antics now commonly associated with the so-called fraternity, and your little sister at home, prove? Do these fraternities want only masochists and sadists? Or perhaps they are just a false front for the psychology staff to observe mass idiocy?

Whatever the excuse for such trying antics, it is time for a bit of constructive growing on the part of the fraternities.

'No More Trite News'

If I ever got my way on this paper there would be a lot of changes made. I'm sure you would approve, too. For instance, I would begin by throwing away the Associated Press Style Manual. This puny, but pithy pamphlet dictates the rules newspapers and newspapermen the country over follow when writing news stories.

It frowns on the use of long sentences, adjectives, sexual allusions and colorful language (including swearing), all of which I am very fond of using.

It is because of this little book that editors feel they must delete untruths which I and a few other saboteurs recklessly toss into our news stories. I've always maintained that one owes it to the public to throw in a little bull to dress up an otherwise drab news release such as "SENATE REVEALS IT TOOK JUST 19 VOTES TO PASS A BILL TO MOVE MEETING PLACE FROM AC 33 TO AC 29." Now just a few untruths would transform this into passable reading. "SORDID CONFESSIONS AND FIST-SWINGING MELEE HIGHLIGHT SENATE DECISION TO MOVE FROM SPACIOUS AC 33 TO NEWSPAPER ADVISER JOHN DOWDEN'S OFFICE."

Assuming that I could grab control in a brilliant "coup d'etat," which the ad man and I are planning, my first official move would be to invite the next demonstrator who is planning to set himself on fire to read my style manual while he is in the process.

But for now I am content merely to practice the type of news stories I shall soon be turning out by the score:

Three Professors Lynched Here

An enraged mob of students took the law into their own hands late yesterday and hung the entire staff of the Zoology Department in the aftermath of a new department ruling that vivisection of a falcon would begin that day. "By God, I would rather die myself than see our beloved Cerritos College emblem be defiled in such a manner, but of course what we have done is much the better," stated the leader of the mob. A small crowd filed out of the coffee shop and raised their coffees in a final silent farewell as the teachers commenced to swing by the afternoon breeze. "Gee, that one guy never gave any homework, either," one of the onlookers said.

Janitor Goes Mad On Electric Cart

Head janitor Osgood "Bugaboo" Burns was finally apprehended late this morning after leaving 35 students dead and maimed in the wake of a wild, insane "Ride of Death." "It was horrible. Oh, it was horrible," sobbed one ood. "Oh, I disagree entirely," averred another. "I thought it was the most exciting thing I've ever seen. Man, did you see the way that crazy old man handled that rig? The way he picked those guys off one by one, wasn't that somethin'?"

Riot in Library

The school library was left in ruins last night as the entire assembly of occupants rioted and began throwing Molotov, martini and fruit cocktails. The students apparently were thrown into a frenzy because a librarian was overheard commenting on that month's high draft call to the effect that "there won't be as much book theft now, will there Thelma?" This comment was quickly relayed to the students by a red agitator. Within minutes projectiles were being hurled at the librarians, walls were pulled down, books set on fire, looting was widespread and students danced in the sunken reading circle. (Admission was free with an AS card). "Save the 'Playboys,' you fools!" was the last shout heard before the building collapsed, squashing all concerned.

S.S. Offers Draft Tests

By ROBERT UNDERWOOD
The Long Beach State "49'er" announced the Selective Service has set May 14, May 21 and June 3 to give its qualification tests to college students who wish to take them.

The aptitude test may serve as a criterion to determine draft status, depending on the policy of the local draft boards. Interested students should write to the Science Research Association of Chicago no later than April 23.

Noisy Controversy

As a result of noisy students, a big bang of a controversy has come about in the library of Santa Ana College. Everything from carpeting to students' maturity has been blamed for the noise. Some students recommend the Japanese custom of taking one's shoes off before entering a building as a solution.

Demonstrations

Bakersfield College is clearing up the doubts of many students as to what they can and can't do on the campus. The Student Personnel Committee discussed demonstration and collections held on campus which have no connection with the college. This meeting was the result of a "Soap for Vietnam" collection and the March of Dimes campaign.

WAKE ME WHEN IT'S OVER

The trouble with early morning classes is that you're too sleepy. At late morning classes you're too hungry. At early afternoon classes you're too logy. At late afternoon classes you're too hungry again. The fact is—and we might as well face it—there is no good time of day to take a class.

What shall we do then? Abandon our colleges to the ivy? I say no! I say America did not become the hope of mankind and the world's largest producer of butterfats and tal-low by running away from a fight!

If you're always too hungry or too sleepy for class, then let's hold classes when you're not too hungry or sleepy; namely, while you're eating or sleeping.

Classes while eating are a simple matter. Just have a lecturer lecture while the eaters eat. But watch out for noisy foods. I mean who can hear a lecturer lecture when everybody is crunching celery or matzo or like that? Serve quiet stuff—like anchovy paste on a doughnut, or steaming bowls of lamb fat.

Now let us turn to the problem of learning while sleeping. First, can it be done?

Yes, it can. Psychologists have proved that the brain is definitely able to assimilate information during sleep. Take, for instance, a recent experiment conducted by a leading Eastern university (Stanford). A small tape recorder was placed under the pillow of the subject, a freshman named Wrobert Wright. When Wrobert was fast asleep, the recorder was turned on. Softly, all through the night, it repeated three statements in Wrobert's slumbering ear:

1. Herbert Spencer lived to the age of 109 and is called "The Founder of English Eclectic Philosophy."

2. The banana plant is not a tree but a large perennial herb.

3. The Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated in 1914 at Sarajevo by a young nationalist named Mijlas Cvetnik, who has been called "The Trigger of World War I."

When Wrobert awoke in the morning, the psychologists said to him, "Herbert Spencer lived to the age of 109. What is he called?"

Wrobert promptly answered, "Perennial Herb."

Next they asked him, "What has Mijlas Cvetnik been called?"

Wrobert replied, "Perennial Serb."

Finally they said, "Is the banana plant a tree?"

"To be honest," said Wrobert, "I don't know too much about bananas. But if you gents want any information about razor blades, I'm your man."

"Well," said the psychologists, "can you tell us a blade that shaves closely and cleanly without nicking, pricking, scratching, scraping, scoring, gouging, grinding, flaying or flensing?"

"Yes, I can," said Wrobert. "Personna® Stainless Steel Blades. Not only does Personna give you a true luxury shave, but it gives you heaps and gobs and bushels and barrels of true luxury shaves—each one nearly as truly luxurious as the first."

"Land's sake!" said the psychologists.

"Moreover," said Wrobert, "Personna is available not only in the Double Edge style blade, but also in the Injector style blade."

"Great balls of fire!" said the psychologists.

"So why don't you rush to your dealer and get some Personnas at once?" said Wrobert.

"We will," said the psychologists, twinkling, "but there is something we have to do first."

Whereupon they awarded Wrobert an honorary L.L.B. (Lover of Luxury Blades) degree, and then, linking arms, they sang and danced and bobbed for apples till the campfire had turned to embers.

College Hosts Vocal Concert

Members of the Southern California Vocal Association will present a concert in Burnight Center tomorrow. The public is invited to the annual event which will begin at 7:30 p.m.

According to host Stanley Porter there will be high school vocalists and directors representing all parts of Southern California. Serving as co-host will be Warren Marsh of Whittier College.

Participating soloists will be pre-selected and then judged in a morning session to select those performing in the evening concert. Forty ensembles will meet in the afternoon in order to select the best for the concert.

Judges will be Milton Young, Glendale College, and Dr. Francis Baxter and Esther Andress of California State College at Los Angeles.

Homecoming Set for Oct. 29

The Executive Cabinet set Oct. 29 as the next Homecoming date in a unanimous decision at its March 3 meeting.

Cerritos is scheduled to play "cross-town" rival Rio Hondo JC for the first time on that date. Earlier, the cabinet debated over the possibilities of hosting Homecoming on Nov. 12, but that idea was abandoned in favor of the October date at the suggestion of Commissioner of Activities Nancy Caccia.

In other action, the executive branch approved the financing of the wrestling team's expenses to the Southern California and State Tournaments, pending final approval by treasurer Ken Welch. They also postponed action on a proposal to transfer $800 into the account for athletic awards.

FASHION POST

by MARY DANIELSON

Say girls, here's the news you've all been waiting for. The grand opening of that great new JOEL'S Store in the Stonewood Shopping Center will be March 18 and 19.

You won't want to miss this exciting event, but most of all you'll want to attend wearing the latest JOEL'S fashions.

You'll be right in step in a two-piece cotton lace by Campus Casuals. On the other hand, you might want to wear capris and matching floral print blouse by Loubelle.

When you enter the sparkling new shop you will be given a fortune cookie, and if you're lucky, it will contain a gift certificate valued at $5, $10 or $20.

You'll also want to register for the grand prize drawing to be held April 15.

The winner will receive a Yamaha Newport 50 Sportcycle, a model made especially for girls with an automatic clutch and economical two stroke engine that gets up to 200 miles on a gallon of gas!

If you're the lucky winner you will want to go riding in those crazy new Jammies by Carol Chris. JOEL'S has them with matching crop tops in wild prints of orange and green, as well as blue and green.

Don't forget to stop by this fabulous new store and see the many new fashions for campus wear, sportswear or even for that dressy occasion.

PUBLIC EVENTS CONFERENCE

Seven JC's To Air Talent Problems

Community Services and the Associated Students will host a public events symposium for seven local junior colleges tomorrow. Exploratory workshops will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the lecture halls to discuss mutual problems and solutions in the campus events field.

The colleges invited were selected on the basis of similarity of programming and experience in joint (community services-student body) programming, according to William Kelm, administrative dean of community services. He added that several of the schools have scored outstanding successes in publicizing their events.

Items on the agenda include discussion of the roles of both student body and community services in developing programs. A major consideration will be whether the Associated Students should provide entertainment on a profit-making basis or cultural events on a break-even or loss basis.

Kelm noted that an issue facing community services is the relative value of specialized versus generalized programs. "We had Vincent Price on campus last spring, but perhaps he appealed basically to fine arts students," Kelm said. "We're trying to find out how the other schools are handling their programs."

Publicity and attendance problems will constitute another segment of the parley. In conjunction with this point, co-operative programming will be discussed as a possible means of alleviating financial ills.

Kelm suggested a program whereby a noted speaker could talk one day a week on four or five campuses.

Another means which has previously been advanced is a rotating system of programs with all schools sharing in each program. This could help attendance because publicity would be better and a broader segment of the area would be contacted.

Kelm referred to the symposium as the "most exciting development yet in this field." He said that all schools contacted expressed keen interest in the conference.

The junior colleges sending representatives are Compton, El Camino, Fullerton, Harbor, LA City, Long Beach City and Valley.

Interested students can earn college credit at the University of Puebla in Puebla, Mexico, under a program offered by California State College at Fullerton.

The summer session at the University of Puebla will run from June 27 through August 5, according to Professor Warren A. Beck, director of the special program. Cal State Fullerton and the University of Puebla are jointly sponsoring the summer school, Beck added.

Beck said admission to Cal State Fullerton is not required and records and transcripts need not be filed in the college offices.

Courses offered are conversational Spanish, Spanish-American Literature, the history of Mexico, the history of Mexican Art and the sociology of Latin America.

Conversational Spanish and Spanish-American Literature will be taught entirely in Spanish. The other courses will be taught in English.

Total cost, except for transportation to and from Puebla, is $360, Beck said. This includes board and room, tuition, health insurance, excursions to Mexico City, Oaxaca and Vera Cruz, and membership in Puebla's best private club.

Students must make their own travel arrangements. Beck stated that travel information is available at his office.

Cerritos, High Schools Present Madrigal Fete

Madrigal Singing Groups from local high schools will join with the two Cerritos groups for a concert festival in Burnight Center next Thursday.

The festival will be sponsored by the Cerritos Music Department and the Associated Students. According to Cerritos Madrigal Director Stanley Porter this is the first time a festival like this has been held. He added that it is hoped to become an annual event.

Participants will meet at 3 p.m. Each group will be given 12 to 15 minutes to present Madrigals. At 6 p.m. the vocalists will attend a banquet in the Student Center.

The public is invited to attend the final concert at 7:30 p.m. Each group will again be allowed 12 to 15 minutes for a performance of their choice. Porter commented that there will be limited seating, and advised that spectators plan to arrive early.

According to Porter, Cerritos College is the only school in the area which has two Madrigal groups.

Porter reported that in the afternoon concert the Madrigal "A" Group will sing "Amarillo, Mia Bella" by Caccini, "Oh Stay Sweet Love" by Farmer, "Farewell My Love" by an anonymous author and "He Is Good and Handsome" by Passereau.

The Madrigal "B" group will sing "Dancing and Singing" by Hassler, "In the Merry Spring" by Ravenscroft, "My Heart Is Offered to You" by Di Lasso and "Hard By a Fountain" by Waelrant.

Both groups will be featured in the evening performing novelty and popular selections.

CLUB NOTES

St. Pat's Dance Planned; CCC Premieres 'Bal Week'

The second annual St. Patrick's Day dance and Miss Shamrock Beauty contest will be held in the Student Center from 8-12 p.m. next Friday.

Sponsored by the Sigma Phi fraternity, the dance is open to everyone. Tickets will cost 75 cents (stag) and $1.25 for couples. Tickets go on sale next week.

Music will be provided by the "Starfires," which is "a very good band" and "well known in the Downey area," according to John Millikan, the fraternity's secretary.

In contrast to the "heights of revelry, riot and arrest" which have come to characterize the conduct of American youth at vacation time, the Campus

Crusade for Christ has attempted to prove that misconduct is not needed to have a good time.

The Campus Crusade will present the premiere showing of "Bal Week" Thursday at 11 a.m. in LH 4. The film documents the activities of the Campus Crusade during spring vacation and shows their efforts to "share their faith with their contemporaries."

The Campus Crusade invites everyone to see the film.

DENNIS CAMPBELL

Rio Hondo And Cerritos Athletics

Many people seem to feel that Cerritos will experience a sharp decline in its usual athletic prominence when Rio Hondo Junior College takes the Whittier area from the Cerritos district next year.

Athletic Director Don Hall, however, doesn't think that the results will be as drastic as most people seem to think.

"Sure, it's going to hurt us," said Hall, "but we'll just have to develop an athletic program that's able to attract all of the top talent in our district and we'll try to be of assistance to the local high schools by conducting weight training, summer leagues and clinics to help further upgrade the high school programs."

The big problem for Cerritos is the fact that the high schools in this district are relatively new and small compared to, say, the schools in the Long Beach district. The older beach city schools average about twice the size as the ones here, and produce athletes that may not stand out on their own teams, but who would star on teams of lesser talent.

Cerritos has in the past relied heavily on the Whittier area for talent. Hall feels, however, that the local schools will improve sufficiently in athletic caliber, as they establish themselves and develop better athletic programs, to make up for the loss of Whittier area students.

FOOTBALL HARDEST HIT

Football will probably be the hardest-hit sport. Twenty-five of last year's undefeated team were from the Whittier area, including All-Americans Dennis Born, Dan Scott, Bob Mauriello and Bob Biggs.

El Rancho, Cal High, Santa Fe and Sierra have always produced top talent that Cerritos was able to recruit, and only if head football coach Smokey Cates is able to recruit ALL of the top area players will Cerritos be able to enjoy continued prominence.

Basketball is another sport which will suffer. Knowing Whittier athletes could not compete here next year, head basketball coach Jim Killingsworth did not recruit at all from Whittier.

PROBLEMS FOR KILLINGSWORTH

Killingsworth's troubles are further compounded by the fact that three of the consistently strong area teams — Mayfair, Bellflower and Artesia — are all experiencing lean years. Warren is the only local team of any caliber, and it's going to be difficult this year for Killingsworth to recruit enough talent to insure good future seasons.

Golf, tennis and the new gymnastics team, usually weak anyway, will suffer even more in the future. None of these sports enjoys any local popularity or prominence.

The sports likely to be least hurt appear to be baseball, track, wrestling and cross country. All of the area schools produce at least fair teams in these sports, and the latter two are especially improving rapidly in caliber.

In summing up his views, Hall had this to say: "We feel that we have a good athletic program here, and we don't anticipate a poor future record. Our athletes have always had pride in the Cerritos traditions, have been dedicated and have always tried to reach their potentials. We feel this attitude is a big factor in having a winner."

Victorious Matmen
Aim for State Title

Coach Hal Simonek's wrestlers are journeying to Fresno City College for the 1966 State Junior College wrestling championships to be held there today and tomorrow.

The Falcon matmen are rated among the top three teams at the finals along with El Camino and the perennial favorites from Foothill. "We've got a real good chance to take it all at Fresno. The team has really been working hard for this event," said coach Simonek.

Simonek Optimistic
Simonek bases his optimism largely on the grapplers' convincing victory over some of the best junior college wrestlers in the Southland. They walked away with top honors at last week's Southern California Junior College Wrestling Championships at El Camino College.

The Falcons rolled up 108 points to 104 points for the host Warriors, who finished second. The other fourteen schools entered in the tournament finished far down the ladder.

Cerritos grabbed four first-place awards and finished fourth or better in all of the weight classes. Roland Garza captured first place in the 115-lb. class, outpointing his foes, and freshman Shep Bloom earned a first-place award as he outpointed Al Abrams of San Diego. Cerritos "clinched" the tourney with the victory of Wayne Partee in the 177-lb. class.

Schneider Pulls Upset

Partee pinned Dwight Fritz of El Camino College to gain a first-place spot. Big Barry Schneider gained revenge and a championship as he upset Don Palmer, 6-1. Palmer was third in the State in the 191-lb. weight class last year and dumped Schneider in last year's competition.

Second place finishers included Ken Bos (160 lb.) and Chuck Bishop (167 lbs.), who has been with the team only two weeks. Heavyweight Jeff Smith lost narrowly to defending State Champion Nick Carollo from El Camino. Team Captain Steve Johnson took a second in the 148 lb. class, and Fern Arsenault narrowly missed taking a first place in the 152 lb. class, placing second.

Pete Philpott (130 lbs.) and Brian Shoup (137 lbs.) gained fourth place honors against tough foes in the regionals tournament.

Everyone Qualifies

The outstanding showing at the meet by the Falcons allowed every member of the team to qualify for the State Championship competition. According to Simonek, about six of the wrestlers will be eligible for the national AAU championships to be held in Nebraska during Easter week.

CRA Extends
Golf Deadline

Entry deadline for the CRA Faculty-Student Co-ed Golf Tourney has been extended to Monday. Entry blanks are located in the P.E. Building.

The tournaments are scheduled for next Wednesday and Friday following Monday and Friday (March 21 and 25). They will be held on the Norwalk, Bellflower and Rio Hondo courses, respectively.

Registration and green fees for the courses will be 50 cents for the Norwalk course, $1 for the Bellflower course and $2 for the Rio Hondo course.

All students and faculty members may compete.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINS

Falcons Unbeaten
In Metro Baseball

By BILL SALTZMAN

Like that old man river, the Cerritos baseball team just keeps rolling along. The Falcon horsehiders rolled to their 10th, 11th, and 12th straight victories in winning their first three conference games. Kincaid's clouters clubbed in succession host LBCC 8-2, visiting Bakersfield 8-0, and guest Valley 3-0.

When the horsehiders haven't been pummeling their opponents on their way to a .300 team batting average, they've dazzled them with footwork. When speed and power haven't worked, the opposing pitcher finds that he still must pitch a shutout to tie.

Against LBCC last Friday, Dick Butler's three-run homer brought Cerritos back from a 2-0 deficit in the seventh inning. The big blow came with Ken Lohnes and Steve Runk on base via a walk and single. Cerritos scored three more runs in the frame after Butler's clout, turning the contest into a rout.

Louie Bratcher picked up the victory, pitching 3½ innings in relief of starter Rod Corder.

Gades Shutout

The following day Bakersfield was no match for starting pitcher Bob Vaughn and company. Vaughn, relying mostly on his fastball, shutout the Renegades for eight innings on three singles. Craig Williams pitched the ninth, giving up only a harmless single.

The hot Falcon batters broke the game open early with five runs in the third inning. Rich Emard walked with one out, Chuck Ramshaw and Scott Reid singled for one run and Reid Braden tripled to left for two more. Lohnes' fly ball got Braden home. Larry Sleep doubled and scored the fifth run on an error.

Braden's 380-foot homer to left field made the count, 6-0. In the eighth, a walk to Reid, a triple by Larry Sleep and Runk's base hit accounted for the final two runs.

Valley Loses Again

On Tuesday, the Falcons beat Valley for the second time this year by a 3-0 score. Jim York pitched the shutout, giving up but six hits. He didn't appear to have his good stuff, but he did have good control. He struck out nine, walked none, and never gave up two hits in one inning.

Coach Wally Kincaid had the bull pen busy from the third inning on, but said he never considered taking York out. Reid and Butler made York look so much the better by taking away several "sure hits" on the left side of the infield.

The game was a rather dull scoreless tie for 5½ innings. In the bottom of the sixth, York started the tie breaking rally with a single. He was forced at second by Emard, but Chuck Ramshaw dropped a perfect bunt single up the third-base line. Scott Reid then cleared the bases with a 400-foot triple to the base of the scoreboard in deepest right field. One inning later, a double by Runk and a single by Butler gave Cerritos the 3-0 margin by which they won.

Renegades Strong

Coach Dave Kamanski had several scouts at the Gades 99-30 fiasco over Santa Monica, and what they had to report was not encouraging. Bakersfield is loaded with sprinters, jumpers and distance men, appearing strong in every event.

A big factor in the meet could be the presence or absence of Renegade sprinter Ben Olison. Olison, the Metro sprint champion last year, also plays basketball and may not be in shape to run. His absence, or a poor performance, could give a big boost to the Falcons.

Sprinters Falcon Hope

Cerritos will rely on sprinters Bill Massey, Rod Ferguson and Paul Berumen (all 9.9), quarter-miler Len Van Hofwegen (48.4) and shot putter Brodie Dunn (52-0) for most of its points.

Other top performers for Bakersfield are high jumper Willie Nutt (6-6), 440 man Pat Weddle (49.1), and high hurdler Leodis Adams (14.4). For the Falcons, hurdler Paul Pargen (14.4), pole vaulter Will Oates (14-0) and quarter miler Larry Thomas (48.9) are expected to score valuable points.
