

The Early Bird Gets The Parking Space!

By RUSS LEACH
Have you discovered that looking for a parking space at 9 a.m. is like trying to find a needle in a haystack? If you have, welcome to the club.

With the starting of classes each fall at Cerritos College comes the usual headache of finding a parking space among the endless rows of cars belonging to smart pre-dawn commuters.

Although the problem has been somewhat bearable the last few years, it is growing steadily worse as students are parking their cars everywhere and almost anywhere.

Proprietors in the Cerritos Shopping Center are concerned with the number of cars parked in their lots during business hours. John Terrett, owner of the Red Bell Restaurant at 11011 Alondra issued a warning to students last week as he promised, "All cars parked on our lot belonging to students attending class are considered illegally parked and will be towed away."

Mr. Terrett added that most cars appear on his lot between 8 a.m. and 12 noon, and again between 5 and 6 p.m.

Sheriff's Deputies remind students that cars being towed away in the day will cost approximately $12 to re-claim, and those being impounded at night $15.

Unfortunately, it appears that until the traffic thins out late in the semester, or until the college makes plans for a definite solution to the problem, students will be forced to "grin and bear it."

Glenn Yarbrough Heads Fall Concert Schedule

Appearing tonight in concert will be singing star Glenn Yarbrough. According to Dean of Men Richard Robinson the performance will be presented in the Cerritos Gymnasium at 8 p.m.

Presented by the Associated Students, this is the first of a series of "Evenings on a College Campus" to be presented this fall.

Robinson reports that Yarbrough is a former member of the "Lime-lights" folk-singing group. He is known for his numerous love songs and ballads. Among his hit recordings are "Baby the Rain Must Fall,"

"Time to Move On" and "It's Gonna Be Fine."

Yarbrough recently completed a week-long engagement with comedian Phyllis Diller in the Melodyland Theatre in Anaheim.

Joining the ASCC series this fall will be the Brothers Four in concert November 9. The Norman Luboff Choir will be welcomed on the Cerritos Campus November 18 in a concert co-sponsored by the Community Services Office.

Other campus programs will include the presentation of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra on February 8. This second annual performance is sponsored by the Community Services Office.

Wrapping up the series will be The Back Porch Majority, appearing March 10, and the We Five, performing May 19.

According to Robinson, admission to the concerts will be $3 general admission, $2 for part-time ASCC card holders and $1 for full time ASCC members. Tickets are available at the Student Center Box Office.

GLENN YARBROUGH, entertainer par-excellence opens the 1966 Concert Season on campus tonight. Huge crowds are expected in the Cerritos gym, at 8 this evening when Glenn Yarbrough begins his musical tour.

First Session Conducted For 1966 Senators Fill Vacant Positions

By CLIFF DAVID
The inaugural senate meeting of the 1966 Fall Semester took place Wednesday, September 14, in AC33.

It was highlighted by unanimously passing Jay Purvis as Commissioner of Finance, and Peter Hoagman, Vicki Parton, Linda Oviar, Fred Neuess, and Bill Charmin were received as Senators of the Court. Guy Guthrie received an appointment.

Linda Saferite was a unanimous choice for Chief Justice due partly to a stirring impromptu speech by Americo Acevedo. In other changes sections 2.322, 2.3221, and 2.3222 were stricken by popular consent and 2.3221 was inserted as section 2.322.

That a speakers' program committee be established with the commissioner of Fine Arts and Convocations as chairman. That the committee shall consist of five members, including at least two senators, the membership to be appointed by the Commissioner of Fine Arts and Convocations.

Also resolved to change section 2.55 of the Government Organizations Code, which would be amended to read, "Standing Committee Chairmen." Chairmen of standing committees will be elected by the membership of their respective committees. All Senate committees shall submit a report at the end of their term of office in the Senate to be placed on file and made available for the use of future Senate Committee Chairmen.

It was also resolved that section 2.50 of the code be amended to include "It is the duty of majority and minority leaders of the Senate, with the advice and consent of the Chairman of the Senate, to appoint members of their respective parties to committee membership after being informed by the chairman of the Senate as to the number of committee seats to be allotted to each party."

Rob Schmid was elected as pro tem of the Senate, and Fred Adams received the majority as majority party leader.

The Photo Department will take photographs for Homecoming, fraternity and sorority activities, all clubs, and others at reasonable prices. Copies of any photos are also available. For information, contact Tom Polly in AC34 from 10-11 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Skirts To Swing At Blue Hawaii Dance

Dance 'til your toes get tan at the swinging and swaying Blue Hawaii dance sponsored by the Cerritos College Business Club, Phi Beta Lambda. The dance will be held next Friday, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the student Center, according to club president Daryl Thompson.

True tropical enchantment will reign as Cerritos students are welcomed the Hawaiian way.

Grass skirts will move to the music of the Dye-Sonics with only a short rest to thrill at the daring Karate demonstration given by the Pico Riviera Karate Club. Refreshments will also be served to thirsty kanes and wahinis.

Blue Hawaii, which will be the second dance of this semester, will be augmented by the appearance of Cerritos students in their favorite Hawaiian costumes. If, however, Hawaiian costumes are not your style, school dress will be permissible.

The price of admission will be $1 per person and $1.50 per couple to students with an ASCC card. Students without an ASCC card will pay 50 cents more.

According to Thompson all the members of Phi Beta Lambda have been working hard to assure the success of Blue Hawaii as proceeds will be turned over to the club treasury for future campus projects. Thompson commented "I think the dance should prove to be a lot of fun for everyone and I hope to see all the students there."

Campus beauty Vickie Parton and playboy president Bruce Reumont discuss plans for future activities as they cool off during desert conference. Crowding time for a swim in during the 20 hour days was difficult but breaks in the schedule were allowed around 10 each evening before the late show or a bull session in the lobby.

Campus Welcomes New Instructors For '66-'67 Year

By BECKY HUSTED
Out of approximately 215 full-time instructors at Cerritos for the fall term, ten of these are new to our campus.

These ten come from various areas and backgrounds. One comes to us from as far away as Texas. Another was a classified employee at Cerritos until just prior to receiving his degree, and is now using his education to help further the education of others. Another still gave up his dental practice in favor of teaching.

The new instructors and their respective courses are: Wolfe DeLyre, Dental Assisting; Philip Forthun, Journalism; Carol Hill, Home Economics; Silvia Hubbell, Spanish; and Aida Huyg, Nursing.

Also Ruben Martinez, Spanish; Thomas Plumb, Asst. Football Coach; Jack Sappington, Intern Technology Coordinator; Sabina Vose, Nursing; and James Woolever, Data Processing.

News Staff Named

Freshman Cliff David has been named "Talon Marks" editor for the Fall Semester 1966. A graduate of Warren High in Downey, David served as sports editor of the yearbook and editor of the school News Bureau. He expanded his knowledge in journalism by working on the Summer "Talon Marks".

Upon his appointment as editor Cliff David said, "I feel very fortunate to lead this brilliant staff which I'm confident will achieve an All American rating this year."

Board Demands Student Forms

All male students between the ages of 18 and 26 years of age who are enrolled in at least 12 units and who did not receive the yellow "Request for Selective Service Form 109" form at the time of registration are urged to pick up a form as soon as possible in the Office of Admissions and Records.

Students who doubt the importance of filling out this request form immediately should be aware of the fact that the Selective Service Board has no way of classifying students correctly unless they receive a 109 Form (Student Deferment) directly from the school.

Deadline for turning in this request is October 1.

The Selective Service Board must receive the 109 Form from the college by October 15. For this reason it is imperative that the October 1 deadline for the request form be met.

Any student unable to meet this deadline due to delay in receiving his registration certificate card should complete the request form as soon as possible.

The office will complete the procedure and each student will receive a carbon copy of the completed 109 Form which was sent to the local Boards.

Jobs Go Begging; Rich Unconcerned

It seems that many students have wallets bulging with money so they don't need to work. This is evident because there are numerous jobs that haven't been applied for at the Student Job Placement Office.

On campus jobs pay $1.25 per hour and off campus jobs pay from $1.25 per hour to $4.00 per hour. These jobs require that you be a full time student (12 units or more) and have a declared major. It is not a requirement that you be skilled.

Job openings are listed on the bulletin board between the college bookstore and the coffee shop. They are also listed in front of the Student Job Placement Office.

Fourteen hundred students found jobs last year with the help of the Student Job Placement Office. This year they want to help you find work, but the first move must be yours. If you want work fill out an application and go for an interview at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., 1 p.m., or 3 p.m. at the Student Job Placement Office in the Administration Building.

Talent Gathers Here; Cerritos Sponsors New Music Sounds

Band talent from all over the Southern California area will be gathered at Cerritos College this weekend as auditions will be held for the Junior Neophonic Orchestra of Southern California according to Music Department Chairman Jack Wheaton.

Wheaton announced that this year the orchestra will be sponsored entirely by the Cerritos College Office of Community Services.

Wheaton, who will direct the Neophonic, has made many plans for the second season of the "new sound" in orchestra. After several local performances the Neophonic will tape an hour long special for KABC TV, in November and then travel to Michigan for the National College Band Masters Convention in early February.

In addition, they are hoping to journey to Miami Beach as the special attraction on the finale of the National Intercollegiate Jazz Festival Playoffs in May. The Neophonic will stage two concerts at Cerritos this year, once in January and again in June.

Greeks Host New Students

Social organizations of Cerritos College will again hold the bi-annual coffee hour announced Dean of Women Amy Dozier. This semester the Fraternity Coffee Hour will be on September 28 and the Sorority Coffee Hour will be on September 29 both at 7:30 in the Student Center.

The purpose for this social gathering is to help the incoming freshmen decide which organization they would like to join. The program for the evening will include speeches from representatives of each Fraternity and Sorority. They will explain their activities at Cerritos, and time will be provided for questions and answers. Refreshments will be served.

Fraternities participating this semester will be Delta Chi Omega, Sigma Phi and Gamma Delta Phi. Delta Phi Omega, Phi Kappa Zeta and Theta Phi will represent the Sororities.

Students interested in rushing any of the social organizations at Cerritos should attend the Coffee Hour and learn more about Greek life on the Cerritos Campus.

A. W. S. Entertains "Female Problems"

Dr. Jeanne Rivoire will speak Monday evening in the Student Center at 7:30 September 26, 1966.

Frosh Political Future

—CLIFF DAVID

This is the time for all Freshmen to answer the call of service. With senate elections soon arriving the need for senate candidates and voters is of pressing importance. This is our first chance as a class to accept the responsibilities and traditions which we inherit as the Frosh class of '66. The only way that Cerritos can reach its full potential and continue making unprecedented achievement is to pull as one composite unit of Freshmen combining forces with a tremendous sophomore class to make this year to remember in student politics, athletics, and academics. An outstanding example of Cerritos spirit was demonstrated in last year's presidential elections in which Bruce Reumont and Richard Bernstein emerged victorious and spearheaded an all-time voting record for student participation. If you were an outstanding student leader or athlete in high school then we need your help in continuing our traditions of outstanding student leaders. Many incoming freshmen linger in the background because they lack the confidence that made them outstanding in high school. But we are no longer ten outstanding high schools, we are the greatest junior college in the nation, in athletics and student government as demonstrated by our undefeated football and baseball teams and a unique and brilliant student government with the same form as our State and Federal governments led by Bruce Reumont Executive, Richard Bernstein Senate, and Linda Safer's Court Chief Justice. With a total enrollment of 11,000 only you can prevent us from attaining our ultimate goal, only with your help can we, the Freshman class be the greatest class in Cerritos history and enable us to obtain our full potential as a college.

Heaven Can Wait

By ROCKY DIAZ

It seems to me that if I could go anywhere, I would make it a special point not to go to heaven. It may sound strange that I chose not to go to that place of "Supreme Bliss" but before you make any snap judgement of my sanity, let us examine the common homo-sapien conception of the "abode of God".

Now, heaven is a place where man (and woman) is rewarded for leading a good (Christian?) life. In order to earn his wings man must steer clear of vice, blasphemy, drunkenness, gluttony and all the other little things that make life worth living.

I wouldn't say that heaven is necessarily a bad place but it does seem as if it would be rather dull, especially if you stop and consider the puritanical way of life one must lead in order to secure oneself a reservation in God's great boarding house in the sky. I mean, all the things people really enjoy doing: lying, cheating, stealing, fighting, bickering and ogling girls just don't quite seem to fit into the heavenly picture.

Besides, just on general principles I don't know if I'd want to go to heaven. After all, even if I did manage to go to heaven I wouldn't know anybody, all my friends would be at the other place. Anyway, if I did go to the other place it probably wouldn't be so bad, as long as I took my ice water and marshmallows, and who knows, maybe, h-l is nothing more than one big rock out party.

One last thought. If you're lonely and disenchanted with the United States and LBJ's "Great Society", become a communist and life will become one "big party".

Students Initiate Dean

Dean of Men Dick Robinson makes a big splash in student government at the annual summer conference during September. Erawan Hotel in Palm Desert hosted the Cerritos College Student Leaders during a three day discussion of how best to upgrade activities on this campus. From left, President Bruce Reumont, Harvey Fisher, Guy Guthre, (who had the feet) Bill Halsey, (about to give someone a boost) Russ Barnings, (who had the head and shoulders) and Mr. Richard Robinson, (who allowed the boys to throw him in twice so this picture could be taken).

District Reduces Property Taxes

The 1966 tax situation is looking up for the fifth consecutive year taxes have decreased to bring the total to 22 cents in reduction over the last five years. With 1966 showing a reduction of 2-cents per $100 assessed value.

"Widespread improvement throughout the college curriculum will be in effect throughout this entire academic year," stated President J. W. Mears as he commented that the instructional program has not been cut back in any way.

This was made possible by controlling expenses of the college by "taking a close look" at all operating expenses and made an effort to keep increases to a minimum.

Increased assessed valuation throughout the district and lower bond redemption requirement assisted in enabling the tax cut according to the Henry F. Korsmeier, asst. supt. and business manager.

Scope Presents TV Show

Cerritos College enters the final week of the month-long presentations about the college on KABC television's "SCOPE" program Monday morning at 7 a.m. on channel 7.

"Programs about Cerritos have been shown each weekday morning at 7 a.m. on channel 7 since the first of September," commented Harlan Stamm, college coordinator for the television shows. Each half-hour program has been devoted to a different area of instruction or activity presented at Cerritos.

The final five shows will be telecast in color and were filmed at the Hollywood Palace. They will highlight the Cerritos Music Department and the various performing groups with several guest soloists.

Monday morning (Sept. 26) and Tuesday morning (Sept. 27) will feature guest soloist Ralph Gari with the Cerritos Clarinet Choir and the Cerritos Wind Ensemble, respectively.

Trumpet soloist Bud Brisbois will join the Cerritos Stage Band on Wednesday morning (Sept. 28) with such selections as "Watermelon Man," "The Danish Twist," and "Sweet Georgia Brown."

Soloist Don Rader will join the Stage Band on Thursday (Sept. 29) for a discussion on trumpets and flugel horns. He is a former member of the Count Basie Band and the Woody Herman Orchestra.

The final presentation, also in color, will feature soloist Paul Horn and the Cerritos Stage Band. "Something Blue" will feature Horn on the clarinet and with the flute on "The Shadow of Your Smile."

"We are most pleased with the response of the television viewers and with KABC television for permitting this month-long feature about Cerritos," Stamm said.

Entertainment Swirled

By BECKY HUSTED

The premier of the new fall season of television brings a wide variety of entertainment ready to please the smallest small fry to the youngest oldster. Since many of the shows made their debut a couple of weeks ago most of us are ready to form a definite opinion on each as to whether to puff it or pan it — providing, of course, the many other necessities of life haven't crowded out tube time.

Assuming, however, that most of us do let pleasure come before work once in awhile, let's take a look at some of the new shows to hit the air. "The Monkees," the series about the same teen group who recorded "Last Train to Clarksville" could be a hot new item for those of us who appreciate a zany, new comedy. Then again...

"The Man From U.N.C.L.E." has a counterpart. Amazingly enough, it's called "The Girl From U.N.C.L.E." Stephanie Powers stars in the title role with Noel Harrison as her sidekick Mark. NBC gives James Bond the old television try.

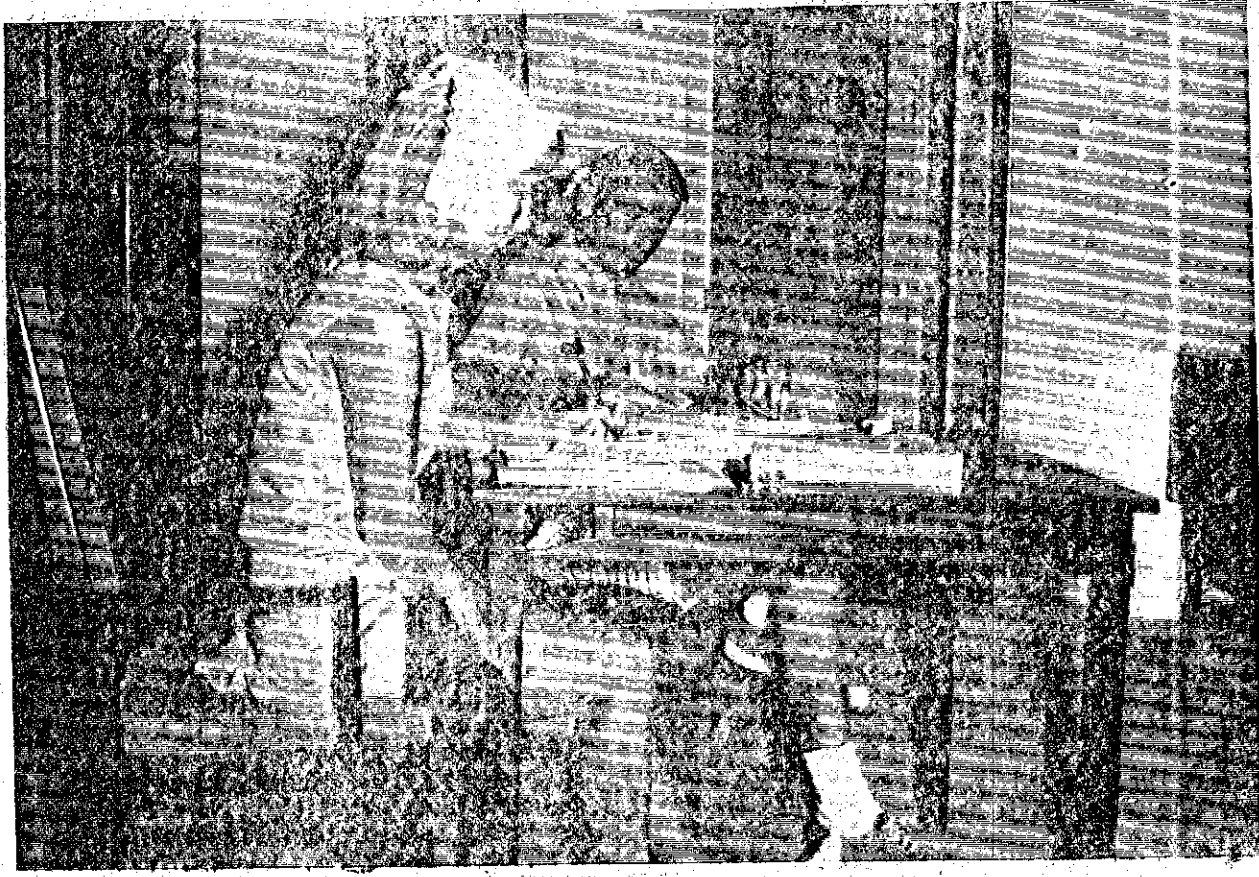

In case of emergency, dial this number for an "Occasional Wife,"

That's what Michael Callen does whenever the boss (who just happens to manage a baby food company) wants to meet the wife. The only problem is that the wife isn't always wife, only occasionally. In fact, wife isn't really wife at all. Wife is — well, watch and see for yourself.

What happens when an architect and an artist fall in love, marry, and move into a left-over storeroom that just happens to be on the top floor and just happens to be minus windows? It's very simple—you have "Love on a Rooftop" and lots of privacy.

Tune in Thursdays for a modern-day "three musketeers." It's "Jericho," a wartime adventure series about three Allied agents in Europe who try to outwit the opposition. Easter said than done, as usual.

Now last, for the time being, and certainly not least, is your friend and Batman—your friendly neighborhood "Green Hornet." Just what does Green Hornet (Van Williams) have that Zorro and Robin Hood didn't? Why, Kato, of course!

"Let's get this done and go for a swim," says Rob Schmidt to Vickie Partan. "It's about 120 in the shade here in Palm Springs." Constant dedication to duty marked the leaders at the Cerritos College conference for student government planning for '66-'67.

KKK conducted a bare foot protest at the Palm Desert meeting of student leaders as cabinet members dress for the skits which were viewed around the swimming pool late one evening by conference members and hotel guests and employees.

Preparing daily bulletins, writing scripts for skits, typing, dillfing, memographing, all are part of the job being done at the Leadership Conference by Toni Dean, Caroline Trotter, Vickie Partan and Jan Kurr. Others are part time assistants.

"Let's see what we have here?," says Bruce Reumont, ASCC President as he looks over the day's agenda. Bruce spent a 20-hour day during the meeting working on agendas.

Dancing to the music of the "Safari's" and listening to the Isley Brothers sing, 1500 Falconites discovered Instant fun during an evening of "getting acquainted" in a crowded student center.

"Gee, what a gorgeous badge," says Ken Klues. "It sure is," remarks Bob Fjilstid. "Where do we get one like it?" Howdy Hopper Karen Knudsen explains that everyone should be wearing them at the Campus welcome dance which was attended by about 1500 bouncy Falcons, some with badges.

Grounded Falcons Beat OCC

Coach Smokey Cates' premise of a dazzling aerial show fell somewhat short, but the Cerritos football team still managed an impressive 21-7 victory over Orange Coast in the season opener last Friday night in Costa Mesa.

One reason the Falcon air attack bogged down was an impressive aerial show by the officials. Time and again red flags floated through the air nullifying long gains.

Two 40 yard pass completions from Mike Olsen to Steve Brinkley and to Dan Laskowski went for

Well Done, Don Hall

Director of Athletics Don Hall deserves a pat on the back for his instrumental work in improving the students' seating accommodations at Falcon Stadium.

Under Hall's new plan the Cerritos student section capacity will increase to a full 3,000 seats starting at the 50 yard line on the western sidelines.

Also under the new plan, Cerritos students may bring their guests into the student section. In the past if naught because of rule infractions. The men in white assessed Cerritos for a total of 90 yards for various penalties.

Cates had no comment on the officiating, but much to say on players and the game.

"We were very satisfied for an opener," he said. "We looked good and bad on line play, but they came through when needed."

By "coming through" Cates meant the clutch goal line stands the Falcons made after penalties had given OCC the ball deep in Cerritos territory.

"If there was a turning point in the game, that was it. We had to hold them after they got a few breaks, and we did," said the Falcon mentor.

Cates had special praise for sophomore tackle Brodie Dunn who led the offensive charges. Besides his bruising blocking, Dunn caught a touchdown pass on a tackle eligible play and intercepted an OCC pass to stop a drive deep in Falcon territory.

As far as the game itself goes, the Pirates gave the Falcons "more competition than expected." The hosts jumped off to a 7-0 lead with two minutes gone in the second period on an 18 yard TD pass from Dan Mikels to Tom Georgino.

Cerritos bounced back four minutes later after Jim Grissum recovered a fumble on the OCC 38. Four plays later, Olsen hit Dunn with a 18 yard pass to knot the score.

Cerritos pulled ahead to stay late in the second period marching 83 yards to a score. The big play in the drive was a 35 yard draw play by fullback Chuck Bishop. End Tony Smits threw a key downfield block on the play to spring Bishop and clear a path for him to ramble to the Pirate 34 yard line.

A quick pass for five yards and another draw by Bishop for 18 more yards moved the ball to the 11. From there, Bishop took a pitchout and circled right end fighting the 11 yards to pay dirt. Reid Braden's second of three PAT kicks split the up-rights.

The lone Falcon tally in the second half followed a dazzling punt return by Brinkley. His 31 yard scamper plus a penalty on OCC gave Cerritos a first on the 15. A double reverse by Pat Provenio put the ball on the one yard line and from there Bishop punned for the TD to ice the game.

Cerritos rolled up an impressive 360 net yards in their opening game. All but 79 of these yards were on the ground as the Falcons played a ball control game with their first string quarterback Braden on the sidelines due to a severe hand injury.

Worried about injuries at the start of the year, Cates was pleased that the Falcons suffered no further serious injuries. The Falcon mentor is optimistic that Braden and the entire team will be ready for the season's second encounter at Phoenix on Oct. 1.

Bill Saltzman

OF LIZ AND ROSE

The sight of the Cerritos football team's lines crashing head on into a hapless opponent is enough to warm the hearts of such ne'er-do-wells as Frankenstein, Dracula, and Catwoman.

In JC football there are few lines as big, few lines as mean, and (if they can understand their coach Smokey Cates), few lines as intelligent.

Foreinstance, if someone said to you, "lion and tiger dogged but the cup froze and the draw popped until Lee way layed the brunser," you'd probably think surgery was in order.

But if you are confused, ask Dave Shawver or Irv Dixon, or Daryl Waroneiki. They'll tell you it's just Smokey's sure cure for the Viet Nam situation. (It's not being used yet because the Pentagon favors the AAU over the NCAA and Whizzer White is the only Supreme Court member who can understand him).

Really the whole thing is just getting started. For example, there is Smokey's code name for two interior linemen: Bull and Bear. But with guys like Lon Woodard and Brodie Dunn in there, you are not at all sure that it is a code.

The player at another position is referred to as "Rose." A football team with a player named "Rose" won't strike terror into the hearts of opponents, but it must be remembered that the LA Rams have a guy named Rosey who is not laughed at for sissified nomenclature.

There is also a player-position called "Russ," which may or may not have been censored from the original. If you like sex you can watch "Liz" and if you like blood you can watch "Rip."

If you are still confused, let's take an example called "Lou." It's all quite simple to figure out if you scrutinize the clues. "Lou" either blocks or tackles or kicks or runs or passes or brings in the water bucket when not holding the yard markers and calling penalties while running the score board.

Well class, now that we all understand Smokey's code, it is time for an advanced lesson. Note that all the above players are first "whites." If they fail, the "reds" are given equal opportunity. This of course would draw the plaudits of the Bureau of Indian Affairs if not the NAACP.

The explanation of the code is simple. Any code name with an "R" in it refers to a right wing extremist and any name with an "L" in it refers to the LBJ Ranch. The female names refer to any player whose draft deferment is due to unusual dating habits. The animal names, however, are not a code at all.

Finally, the motivation for the code has nothing at all to do with confusing opponents. It is merely a method devised to gain revenge at the people whose sole purpose in life is sitting around dreaming up this nonsense. And whose revenge is it. Who else but "Smokey," "Lefty," "Tank" and Plumb.

HALFBACK GREG PEREZ flashes the form that enabled him to average better than nine yards per carry in his first game for Cerritos. He is shown (top) catching a rollout pass from Mike Olsen. He cuts up field (center) behind the blocking of Jerry Griska (81) and Lon Waroneiki (67) before finally being tripped up by a host of Orange Coast defenders.

Tankers Face Top Cal Teams

By DAN ARMSTRONG
"I'll be happy if we just win half our games," said Coach Pat Tyne of the coming water polo season.

Coach Tyne isn't predicting the fall of the mighty Falcon water polo dynasty that notched a 19-4 record in tying for the conference crown last season and a 107-40 mark in the last five years. It's just that Tyne, who delights in scheduling the toughest teams in the state for his squads, may have outdone himself this year.

On the agenda for the Falcons are possibly the six toughest junior college teams in the state plus such powerhouses as the defending undefeated national champion UCLA, UCI, and Cal State Long Beach.

In the coaches' pre-season poll, Fullerton and Orange Coast were selected as the two top teams in California, followed by Cerritos, El Camino, Rio Hondo, and Long Beach City. Not only are each of these teams on the Falcon schedule, but Cerritos will also meet Foothill, State champs for the last three years.

As for the Metropolitan Conference, Coach Tyne predicts a tight race between defending co-champions Cerritos and Long Beach, El Camino, and Rio Hondo.

Since he hasn't seen his squad in action Coach Tyne could only guess while naming his starting lineup. Returning all-conference stars Bob Gaviglio, Jerry Ray, and Ken Hammer head the pack at goalie, forward, and center tank respectively, and Randy Anne, Darryl Vincent, Kurt Dietrich, and Ken Martens round out the starting unit.

Dan Derrig, Ray Murphy, Jim Barratt, Dave Pickup, and Randy Hliff also have the ability to move into the starting lineup, according to Tyne.

This year's Falcons will have quite a task duplicating the achievements of a year ago. While winning 19 of 23 games Cerritos racked up the Southern California Invitational Championship, placed fourth in the Southern Cal Championships, and was named third All-American in junior college ranks.

food

There's more to food than just food, at least to the Cerritos Food Service Management people. We like to think that there is more to food than just food. Of course there's vitamins, and nutrition, everyone knows that, and we've noticed it, too. But eating should be a pleasure and that's one of our aims. We want to make eating at Cerritos something to look forward to, not something necessary to survive. We are experienced at this business. Our workers are experienced in both food preparation and marketing. We'll try our darnedest to give you the best food at the lowest prices in our snack bar and our cafeteria. So avoid the rush out of school at College Hour and enjoy the relaxing atmosphere that only good food can give you.
